"An Emmaus Road Blessing"

from Luke 24, by Andy

May Jesus Himself draw near and accompany you as you converse and reason on your journey (v15)

May He unveil beauties to behold, whisper words of wonder, and inspire with insights and instruction concerning Himself (v27)

May He open your eyes, awaken your senses, and strengthen your body (v31)

May He open your hearts, and open your understanding as you open your arms to fellow travellers
(v32,45)

AUGUST 2020

Kia ora koutou and welcome.

It is August and we are approaching next month's NZ elections. Micah 6:8 connects our faith with our actions, our care for those in need with our walk with God: "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

As we gather on Sundays to worship God, and meet up with each other during the week, may we remember that our Loving Father delights in us as God's children. Some of us have brought burdens we need to lay down.

Others are looking for challenges to take up. We have our unique stories, different needs, and varied gifts.

Together we learn that we are loved and celebrate the humanity we share.

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?" – Isaiah 43:19.

"For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light." –Psalm 36:9

With much arohanui, Andy
